seldom recorded. It says:

the Federal government with England, we can nent organization was adopted, its declared 'of readily conceive the measures which will be ject being to secure, by united action of the taken by the latter power. The Lendon Times, Southern people and States, the advancement of no doubt correctly enough, sketches the intro terest, would fall. From Chicago, it would be meet in council. A common country to sustain, easy to extend the line of successful operations common interests to promote, we can, by united along the great lakes to Canada, and from the action, do much to advance the political and western extremity of Canada round to the Atlan | commercial independence of the South.

- It was to be granted that France would second The war now being waged in defense of the policy of England with respect to the present war. The close understanding of those powers in other directions did not permit a doubt that they would separate readily on this ones.

The war now being waged in defense of the purpose. On the roads which kend to the islands, for their said daughters, and until our arms are unposed by death, or our country is free, we sheath are stationed to intercept the negroes and pretational arms are unposed by death, or our country is free, we sheath are stationed to intercept the negroes and pretations did not permit a doubt that they would separate readily on this ones. hat they would separate readily on this quesacknowledge the independence of the Southern Confederacy. Nor can we doubt that events setting aside the blockade as inefficient with · Washington dynasty, and says:

The government can therefore retrace its steps soil. and repudiate responsibility in the premises only by a flat and direct back-down. Suppose, now, not the more furious, reckless and brainless jurage at the shaking knees of the administration | that may then surround us. Such an issue would produce an explosion and and his agents waver, they go down, and those realise as they are now to make any headway winst the Confederate States sing and thereby make the former our ally, the resul the Confederates are praying and fighting for the ina soliate and inter defeat of the usurper's bloody and iniquitous measures, and the indpendence of the Southern Confederacy.

Whatever turn, therefore, it seems to be now possible for events to take in reference to this ernment, it appears evident to us that our cause must directly or indirectly gain by it. At the same time, it is not worth our while to become over-excited or to expect from that source any great advantages. If will be our best policy t rely solely upon curselves. If outside aid come next morning, Col. Bants and Col. Wood, leav-

"Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty mith before a fail." The Federal government nt Washington is about realizing the truth of these inspired words. Never did power more insolently enter upon a career of utter lawlessness the humiliation to which it is destined.

Interflating. It must immediately and ignomin-justly retreat from the position taken with such i asolent purpose and determination, or it must others, field in double quick time. When with

Within and without, the petils of the Lincoln sepublic accumulate. The madness of its own a long pole, pelting their poor animals—tired protensions is teating its vitals, and the judg- and broken down-most unmercifully. ment of the world abroad is preparing for it the irrevocable sentence that its glory has departed

The Federal government is pledged to sustain the capture of Messrs. Mason and Slidell, be- his known courage, skill, bravery and pruden cause it has recognized the resputere by holding these gentlemen as prisoners. The question, then, arises, will there be war between Great excerting Major Helvets, of the lat Kentuck Seward will no doubt resist the English demand and one private, (a guide,) named Hutson, o may possible—even to the extreme verge of peure—but he will cave in before he will go to war with Great Britain. Indeed, it is not improvable that he has, with his usual indirect probable that he has been considered in the end of the major, and one private, (a guide,) named Hutson, or mand other approach the major and party field, hotly pursued by Capt. Bledsoc and party field by the field by way of doing things, brought about this quarrel house. Bergeam M. fired upon Capt. Prime, with England so that he may have an axcuse ball penstrating his leg, he then knocked him version, under cover of which he could make would be adjusted without difficulty.

The Charleston Fire.

pretent condition of affairs, many of the articles of prime necessity, which have been lost, caunot the unit of menay. With regard to the aggregate to the property of the property of the articles to twenty—one man counted cleven dead along the replaced, even by those who have the cambinated a number of guns, pistols, blankets, etc. The pickets were principally from the articles and the property of the property mand of money. With regard to the aggregate the 33d Objo. Our boys ran the balance into the same into every State in this Confederacy; the 33d Objo. Our boys ran the balance into the same into every State in this Confederacy; the 33d Objo. Somerset, where from and in case any person shall attempt to remove their religions. For our receives, we have no heart in the same into every State in this Confederacy; and in case any person shall attempt to remove their religions. For our receives, we have no heart in the same into every State in this Confederacy; and in case any person shall attempt to remove their religions. For our receives, we have no heart in the same into every State in this Confederacy; and in case any person shall attempt to remove their religions. cisht millions. For ourselves, we have no heart returned to camp in a slow walk. to recken up, as a money loss, the fail of those hallowed edifices and the obliteration of those ancient landmarks of our city, which have been

this is in our city have examped to appropriate a recably to sentence passed by the court-martial one troops and dellars of each million of their capthat toward giving aid to the poor who were made fold they stated, through the chaplain officialing,

The heards of direction of our local insurance in greater jeopardy than from the Confederates companies met yesterday. We are gratified to The younger Harmon stated further that his carn that they have decided to meet all claims sympathies had been originally with the Confedpromptly. Notwittstanding they have been the crate government, and that he had at one time criteripal sufferers, the utmost confidence is felt in their ability to discharge every obligation in army, until he was persuaded and misled by the principal sufferers, the utmost confidence is felt in their ability to discharge every abligation in army, until he was persuaded and misled by the initial continues. The aggregate missepresentations above stated. Whether they amount of property assured is about one million.

visit yesterday to Fort Puleski. We found the siderable property—some forty to fifty thousand currison generally well and in good spirits, dollars' worth.—Knezeille Register, 18th. vance of the enemy. From the parapet we have a good view of the Yankee fleet, which now. acluding the half sunken bulks on the beach, numbers eight vessels. A large steamer, with reinforcements, arrived yesterday morning. With the aid of a glass we could observe no movement among the shipping, which keep at a respectful distance from the lost. Small bodies

A firm in Montevalle, Shelby county, Ala.

musisle to leav-

PLANTERS' CONVENTION OF THE PEDERAL FALSEHOODS AT THE

Delegates appointed to the Planter's Conventionaphis, on the 35 Monday in February, and to 1 The third annual session of the 'Planter invention of the South" was to have assemled in the city of Memphis, Tenn., on the 16th December. Circumstances made it advisable ointed will be in attendance. The number of able and distinguished gentle Executives of the several States, justifies the belief that the approaching session is to be one lation, thinks that the Federal government must of the most interesting assemblages ever held in humiliation before the world such as history has The first Planter's Convention convened at seldom recorded. It says: Supposing war to result from the imbroglio of 16th, 1860. At the last session a plan of permaductory partiess of the war—namely: I, raising the blockade of southern ports; 2, blockading the northern ports; 3, recognizing the national and independent status of the Southern Confederacy.

The overthrow of the South."

The overthrow of the old, and the establishment of a new government, compels the southern planter to abandon the suicidal policy of the Then would come a virtual, if not a formal, war-like alliance with the Confederacy. The Missis-of delegates from every congressional district, sippi river would be opened to the English navy, and representing the great and leading interest before which, acting in co-operation with Confederate States, after a free and full interest land forces, Cairo would fall, St. Louis would fall, Cincinnati would fall. From Cincin-nati and Cairo the way would be open to Chicago, their country's prosperity. Here the tobacco, and that city, the heart of the western grain in- corn, wheat, rice, sugar and cotton producers will

Thus the North would be completely encir- While agriculture is acknowledged as the tic. Thus the North would be competery that cled with a fiery chain of war, and what its fanatic politicians were fund of predicting as the doom of the South would be its doom. It would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. It would be its doom to the south would be its doom. have to swallow all its windy vauntings and sue ests are essential to our future greatness, and for mercy, or like a scorpion girt with fire, die of we should, therefore, secure the cordial co-operation of those engaged in these pursuits. The war now being waged in defense of the territory almost boundless, soil rich and fertile, that they would separate the second to have desired that England should take the initiative. The intelligence from Europe goes to confirm these intelligence from Europe goes to confirm these fiews. Whatever be the result of the present and productions, and a people united in feeling mbroglio, it would seem beyond question that and interest, we have all the elements that couboth England and France are ready at once to stilute a great and powerful nation. To secure political independence we confidently rely upon the brave hearts and strong arms of our gallant would seen shape thems-lves in that case for the abolition of the blockade. If the North should arms more valuable to the present and future would seen shape themserves in that case for the abolition of the blockade. If the North should shrink from a contest with England about the generations, it is necessary that all our efforts about the development of our property of the contest with England about the generations, it is necessary that all our efforts about the development of our property of the development of our property of the contest with the contest of the development of our property of the contest of the development of our property of the contest of the co The Bulletin thinks that the capture of the the watchword of every true hearted southron. Charles E. Fuller, one of the brigade quarte commissioners has been fully indersed by the and that statesman who will indicate the best policy to be adopted will win laurels as nufading as the chieftain who drives the invader from our

It is unnecessary here to allude to the many the usurper should actually recommend this course rather than raise an issue with Great lave adopted resolutions in reference to the slaves appured at Beaufort a few days ago are two ago. Britain-and it would not surprise us if he planting of another crop of cotton, the crop of known to have been taken to the mainland and so-would it not prove a perfect this year being still in the hands of planters. banged, I seem to record only a commonplace should do so would it not prove a perfect this year being still in the hands of planters. hanged, I seem to record only a commonplace prisoners of war were brought to this city on as it penetrated the flesh under the chin, and was bombsbell in the camp of his followers. Would By the 3d Monday in February, the planters, in burbarily, the truth of which needs no affirms. mot the more furious, reckless and brainless in-convention, will be better prepared to adopt a tion. It is not morely men who are trying to burg. They were attached to the infamous back of the neck. The flesh was livid an ecudiaries of the crew fairly grash their teeth in source of policy dictated by the circumstances escape that are murdered. The families of those No delegate, it is hoped, will be absent from scatter the train bands of the conspirators to this great council of planters. Every planter scatter the grain bands of the conspirators to this great council of planters. Every planter massacred. The knowledge of the fact has credit was elosed, and it was and to of the Charleston railroad leaves, as much the benefit of the uniform. The knowledge of the fact has credit was elosed, and it was and to of the Charleston railroad leaves, as much the benefit of the uniform the least indication of whis appreciates his own and the condition of the Charleston railroad leaves, as much the benefit of the uniform the least indication of whis appreciates his own and the condition of the Charleston railroad leaves, as much the benefit of the uniform the least indication of whis appreciates his own and the condition of the Charleston railroad leaves, as much the benefit of the uniform the least indication of whis appreciates his own and the condition of the condition of whis appreciates his own and the condition. weakness, his followers scent danger shead and his country, should teel it his duty to have his formke him. If the tyrant of the White House congressional district represented. congressional district represented. who have been chiefly instrumental in placing the standing committees, it is desirable that the them in power, will turn against them. If they undersigned should be numished with a list of THOS. J. HUDSON.

President Planters' Convention:

Frem Gen. Zellicoffer's Command. We find in the Nashville Ranger of the 18th men are active and successful in barassing the On the night of the 6th the general ordered a Commings and Col. Stanton crossed that night ing the balance of the force on the south side of all the boats before our troops moved up, except one, at this place, which, by carelessness, was suffered to get a vay the night of our arrival, on next day there were beavy details made uild ferry bosts. Our men worked hard ar faithfully in the snow and mud, and yesterday

The same paper, without expressing any opinion as to the probability of foreign war, conencounter the power of the greatest maritime cumpire in the world, backed by the moral weight, it not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft are not directly by the not street of the greatest neft in double quick time. When within about three miles of our camp, they ran into the inforce Cump Goggin, who also caught the same step, and double-quicked it to Somerset, the same night. It is very amusing to see citizens whose houses they passed, describing the retreated to the consciousness of merits of directly by the norm within about three miles of our camp, they ran into the countries of the greatest neft in double quick time. When within about three miles of our camp, they ran into the countries of the greatest neft are not directly by the norm within about three miles of our camp, they ran into the countries of the greatest neft are not directly by the norm within about three miles of our camp, they ran into the countries of the little of the li

-one to hold the reins, and one to each side wi On Thursday, Gen. Zollicoffer ordered Cap ten of his Bull Tigers, to scout this side of th river. Everyloody was looking for the captain's return—as he knew the country well—and from

for making peace with the South, and terminating his horse with his pistol. Neither he nor Capt a war in which he sees that he cannot succeed. B. made any half for these, but, being in ad damage as any men in the service, and are th Speaking of the lasses by the late fire in Charleston, the Mescary of Saturday has the following:

Charleston, the Mescary of Saturday has the following:

Of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses by the late fire in the flexibility of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the lasses of the vast quantity of valuable books, painting of the vast quantity of valuable states of the vast quantity of valuable states of the vast quantity.

Potators—The date of the vast quantity of the vast quantity of the vast quantity of valuable states of the vast quantity of the vast quantity of valuable states of the vast quantity of the vast quantity of valuable states of the vast quantity of valuable Yesterday morning Gen. Z. ordered Co

More Siridge-Burners Hung. Henry and Jacob Harmon, father and son, of Greene county, engaged in burning Lick creek bridge, on the East Tennessee and Virginia rail-The directors of the several banking insti- read, were executed here yesterday, by hanging that they had been not only defuded, but force The Bank of Charleston, which, according to to commit the crime for which they were about this liberal arrangement, will contribute three to suffer by representations that unless the made thousand dollars to this object, has mostlyed to this demonstration of allegiance to the Lancoln amount of projectly instituded an institute of the hundred thousand dollars.

The least of the Planty of the party of the Company, does not exceed $21,000.

The total for in James H. Taylor's southern agencies will not be over $35,000, distributed in the falleshoods of Lincoln's emissions, or of the late Union party. Harmon, they leaders of the late Union party. The bright colors and any one falls short of $25,000, distributed in the younger, was exceeded first, while his tather any one falls short of $25,000, distributed in the younger, was exceeded first, while his tather any one falls short of $25,000, distributed in the younger, was exceeded first, while his tather any one falls short of $25,000, distributed in the younger, was exceeded first, while his tather any one falls short of $25,000, distributed in the younger, was exceeded first, while his tather any one falls short of $25,000, distributed in the fact, that when the shell all the fact that was strived, and is of an improved that the fact that was all that considerable.

The Mobile Register states that considerable the flags of which a large name and the fact that the fact that when the shell all the fact that when the shell all the fa

lar Yankee trick upon a Virginia gentleman, es

A man who had served out a term of enlistment in the United States service, and was in the evil at once in Rio, and frightened the rebeil dag was placed at her most bend, and under its injured. with the air is grained and more than more than a respectful distance from the fourt. Small bodies a respectful distance from the fourt. Small bodies are not in the United States service, and was a large leaf of the scale, and fightened the rober of staggless could be seen on the small-slike. The month of Aurant of the beact, but their meln body keep not only out of the reach of the gains state, and was employed by a gentine of the properties of the said state of the said sta

Into a tive operations some time this week.

NORTH.

The following, says the Bowling Green Courier om the New York Tribmic, and re-published by the northern press generally, gives a feeble idea of the means used by their leaders to deceive th Yankees and inflame their passions against th postpone this meeting until the 3d Monday in | South. Although it seems almost inconceivab bruary, when it is hoped every delegate ap | that such monstrous and absurd lies could fine redence, yet there is no doubt that they are told o willing ears and are generally believed: THE DARDARISM OF SLAVERY.

Killing the Slaves in South Carolina-Gen. Sherman's Neglect to Employ or Provide for the Fugitives.

fron Hend Correspondence of the New York Tribune The policy of Gon. Sherman, or whoever is renot pretend to fathom, nor can I see why the ness. r of the blacks should not relieve the overworked soldiers from the heaviest tasks imposed upon them. The coming of "the Yankees eral reasons. The invitation held out is of the oldest—the accommodations, when in, is wretchtheir masters is a desperate policy and rejentless went their escape. If caught, they are sent in-well as night. The negroes remaining in the them. Very respectfully, R. W. CRUMP, the others attempting to escape, are shot. There is a more horribly story yet. A slave named Priscilla, formerly owned by Mr. Gra-

Yankee brains or Yankee hands is and must be ham, of Grahamville, now a servant of Capt. nasters, relates that before she left the plantation, the slaves were ordered into a barn to shall cked, the barn was fired, and men, women and children were burned alive. Cautain Fuller asmassacred. The knowledge of the fact has cre-> ected. I am indebted for the account to Gen. ory was gradually drawn from her showed how torly she felt the disgrace to which she had iscovered the fact, removed her from the house, nd inflicted upon the innocent victim of her peated floggings She escaped at the first oprtunity, and came to the camp. Is this tragey horrible enough? This girl was the personal rand Trunk railway. They will be convey abankments the instant they are completed. pwards of 100 men belonging to the 30th regient are busily engaged on the fortification forts, and the remaining four on an embankment to be raised near the new garrison. The works are rapidly approaching completion, under the superintendence of Lieut. Storer, royal engineer.

Coundian Military Motters.

Van Fuscihausen, of company H, 45th regiutries are posted all around, and no one is Important Financial Beasures in Con- landed proprietors are in prison. It is understood that Congress has been en-notes, etc. A bill has been introduced by Mr. the Cuban telegraph : antites, appropriates $25,000 for office hire and clerks of the chief State tax collectors. It provides that the lein for the tax shall attach from the date of the assessment and shall follow the Treasury may suspend the collection of the Richmond Examiner, Dec. 16th.

The New York World, of a late date, says : Dispatches have been received at Washington are the government of the country that treason eral soldiers, under a flag of truce, entered the is as vigorously doubt with on the South Ameri-

we had possession of her.

the same person sold cotton of the same quality, harm. The Yankees burnt some houses on

Camp NEAR UNION MILLS, VA. 3 November 35, 1961.

Collie Morries, Secretary So dier's Ahl Socie Your note advising me that your society had nade for my company a lot of winter clothing, blasts of this, to us, northern clims, was received blasts of this, to us, northern clims, was received by was manifested everywhere for full particusome time since. I would have acknowledged goods. They have just been recived, after a vanced rumor upon rumor was put affoal detention of nearly two months.

onsible for his remarkable proclamation, I can-thanks of hearts that fully appreciate your kind-we gathered around the boxes as they were and the immense concourse assembled, and eshas been watched for with auxious solicitude at opened, the smile of satisfaction that played this as at all other points, and the troops are larged as deliverers wherever they go. Few the well known hand of some loved one at home, accompanied the lamonted remains on its march negroes are so dull as to be imposed upon by the was handed out, and the kindling of the eye with through the streets.

fictions of their masters that they are to be sold to emotion, as the blankets, of which you had de-Cuba, or would be worked day and night harder prived yourselves, were distributed to us to prothan ever, or other such inventions. The in- teet us from the cold, damp ground, you would But the slaves come slowly into camp for sev- our lips could not utter.

edly insufficient they cannot bring their families ordered to go on picket duty. Your gift could From every window anxious faces looked out on in any number—they cannot return them if they not have come more opportunely. We are now, are left behind—their condition on the deserted while I write, at our advanced post, expecting and bright, mild and warm, at strange variance districtions is one of ease and comfort, and daily to meet the Vandal for who would dare at- with the chill which manifested itself in the devery obstacle to access to camp is thrown in tempt to subjugate freemen, and to make desotheir way. That they have been shot in num- late our bright, snany South. Pear not that he to the mutiled drams and pealing ers by overseers and masters is beyond all ques | will succeed, while encouraged by the smiles of Terry was well known here, and his loss is The fact is attested by every sort of evi- the fair women of the South, and supplied by deeply felt as a personal as public acmee. The horrible fact stands out with appal- their hands with every comfort a soldier need ing clearness and certainty that the murder of Warmust, we will drive him from our soil. We the slaves who cannot be compelled to follow light not for conquest; we draw the sword in vieuse of our firesides, our mothers, wives, sisor thirty to fifty miles in all directions, guards nerved by death, or our country is free, we sheath land, and there flogged, tortured, and imprisoned hundred pairs excellent blankets, nearly two in irons. If they cannot be caught, they are hundred flannel shirts, one hundred and ninety shot without hesisation or mercy. At Beautert a pairs drawers, ov. r two bundred pairs woolen regular watch is maintained. When the gun socks, a large lot of gloves, besides other articles coats go up the river, as they do every two or for the soldier's comfort too numerous to menthree days, the whites keep out of the way. If then, have been properly distributed, and in the the coast is clear they return in the day time as mane of my company I thank you again for gallant deceased, who were in the ball, with Wednesday night, in which Mrs. W. S. Pickett

Capt. Sardis Blues, Company E, 12th Mississippi Regiment.

RICHMOND INTELLIGENCE.

ons the Enquirer of the Hith. Gen. Ben. McCulloch arrived in this city on who have escaped are treated with the mimest counties of Maryland, and were captured while presion was calm and peaceful. It was already cruelty, and some of them have actually been spying around the Virginia shore of the Potomac late in the evening, and the hall was become camp that it was found necessary to double the ment, who accompanied them to Richmond, of the place, as though each one of those brave mainder has to go back to storage. As first som it was addressed. The invoice consists f 350 blankets, 350 overconts, 700 flaund shirts, 700 pairs drawers, 350 pairs trowsers, 350 pairs shoes, 300 towels and 170 handkerchiels. ORDERED TO BE SOLD -On Saturday the Hustings court entered an order directing all free negroes to be sold who do dot pay their taxes by the Jamary term of the court. DESERTERS -Two men, who lately belonged informed men. Their rames are Lieut. Harron English steamer. Van Fluscibausen, of company H, 45th regiment New York State militia, and Sergenat-Major Charles Van Gilson, company B, Ist regiment Sickles-brigade.

violence and profanations committed in the States.

Violence and profanations committed in the States.

The London Observer (an organ of an intelligible of the london of gaged in secret session in the consideration and debate of Enqueial measures, supplementary to statement about political affairs in Oregon : The tories of Oregon are rampant, and a asking all sorts of trouble for the Union men. Gov. Whittaker is an avowed sympathizer with any property which may be liable to tax from the the rebellion, and has named such officers for urnellection of the State in which the tax is pay-able, the collector of the district may district men will submit to serve under them. Old Joe The bill makes an exception in favor of parts of the country occupied by the public enemy. Where any country, town of district is so occu-Ben. Stark, appointed to Baker's seat in the United States Senate, is no better than the gang, although a Connecticut man, and a former resident of New London. He is one of > Sounce.—A few days since, we are reliably in-formed, Gen Zollicoffer received a reinforcewhatever to expost thom. Twenty-eight Fed-Confederate lines, and explaining that after read the "blue lights" order of tones.

roperty recaptured from the rebels who may durance vile at our wharf, was yesterday per-

HONORS TO COL. TERRY. The Procession and Ceremonies at Nash-

On yesterday morning, when it was announced and had kindly furnished us with a sufficiency river, the result of which, though favorable to that there had been a fight in the region of Green of blankets to protect us from the keen wintry our arms, had lost us one of the most gallant and ars, and the deepest feeling expressed by everyits receipt sooner, but awaited the arrival of the body for the sad casualty. As the day ad lust, however, in the afternoon, at 2 o'clock, (the Louisville railroad depot being crowded To you and the kind friends whom you rep- with eager spectators), the Bowling Green train resent, we owe a debt of gratitude we can never repay. We can only tender you the sincere some of his command, detailed as pall-hearers, including one of his sons, a Texan Ranger, Capt.

John G. Walker, Paulifring Anderson, Jr., and others, whose names we failed to obtain. The orpse was received by a procession of Masons, olution of the morning session, the Legislature of

The hearse, which received the body of Col. stances in which any attachment to their masters have felt that your generous donation was appreciated, and that our hearts spoke thanks that wide Confederate flag. Two companies of infantry, with the Masonic fraternity, escorted it The morning the boxes were opened, the ground As it slowly wound its way throughout the city was wrapped in a mantle of snow, and we were the deepest gleon was pictured on every face. meaner of those whose slow footsteps kept time

When the procession reached the western portico of the capitol, the coffin was removed from the hearse, and conveyed into the hall of Representatives, when it was placed in state, in front occasion were conducted by Dr. Howell. He livered a fervent prayer to Almighty God and read a psalm, after which he made a brief but elequently touching address. As he spoke ob after sob might be heard from those brave and strong men, the comrades-in-arms of the were crowded with citizens, ladies and gentle-men. After the conclusion of the ceremonies, minity to take a farewell look THE CORPSE

We were one of these. With a group of others we approached the coffin, and surveyed for a Decrased Prisoners.—Lucius l'ipps, a member of company "E" 15th Massachusetts manly beauty and soldierly bearing. It lay regiment, and Charles Upliam, attached to commute and cold, bereft of the line, trebheared experience. moment the last remains of that noble form, pany "D," of the same regiment, died at the pression of the living man. But death could no Confederate States prison-hospital a day or roblits features of a certain boid, danntless ex pression, which lingers ever upon the hero's orchestra, and $43.50 for various expenses; total Mont Prisoners of War.—Eight Yankee corpse. No traces of the wound could be seen, They were attached to the infamous back of the neck. The fiesh was lived and the ton Hespital $207.25, Southern Mothers $207.25. congressional district represented.

The remaining three are Virginians, arrested heroes would take still another dear on the pulseless form of his upon suspicion of disloyalty. away or endeavor to hide their wives and chill upon suspicion of disloyalty.

Significant and the pulseless form of his comes first served is the motto, every effort is commander. It was understood that the body used to get in among the fortunate ones who get their freight received. To stimulate the efforts of the region of the among the fortunate ones who get their freight received. To stimulate the efforts of the received. To stimulate the efforts of the received. The southern was to be carried forward last night.

FURTHER PROM ENGLAND.

rom a Special to the New Orients Delta. particulars, which completely confirm what I previously dispatched on the authority of passengers from Fortress Monroe.

War between England and the Lincoln Government would seem undenbiedly impending. The North must back down and cower in the bur of the gans will be mounted on the cm. and contined in one of the military prisons here, deepest humiliation before England, or it must houses during the night, and mearcemented gent and high-toned class of the people) says the Several bankers and some of the most wealthy prisoners must be restored on board a man-of-The London Times, in an article of extraordi-mary spirit and vigor, says the English fleet will blockade, open southern ports, re-establish com-merce with eight millions of customers, and to come.

That district will reach our market for some time more their comfort.... The fast running Mary Walker W. B. made any balt for these, but, being in advance, kept up the chase until they captured the committee on Finance, supprivate, thus getting the whole party. Captain filedsoc captured a Colt's revolving rife, a pair of repeaters, two fine lorses, etc. A bill has been intreduced by Mr. Kenner, from the Committee on Finance, supprivate, thus getting the whole party. Captain filedsoc captured a Colt's revolving rife, a pair of repeaters, two fine lorses, etc. A bill has been intreduced by Mr. Kenner, from the Committee on Finance, supprivate, thus getting the whole party. Captain filedsoc captured a Colt's revolving rife, a pair of reasonry notes and to provide a war tax for their redemption." It is still the standing special or devol the flows. We learn that it proposes to dev of the House. We learn that it proposes to dev of the House. We learn that it proposes to of the House, and are the captured the Cuban telegraph:

Menner, from the Committee on Finance, supplies and unknown vessel was seen making for this bar. The blockwhers attempted to cut her off. Finding no salvation, the vessel beached herself on Cumberland Island, about six miles north of this bar. The crew took to their boats and

The London News (aboltion in asutioners, and are the committee on Finance, supplies and unknown vessel was seen making for this bar. The blockwhers attempted to cut her off. Finding no salvation, the vessel beached herself on Cumberland Island, about six miles north of this bar. The crew took to their boats and day, brought a mail from Fort 1 tekens. Letters had 5c, 5 hidse 7c. Molasses—95 half bbls. at keeping freights off instead of coaxing it on from that post state that in the recent fight 28c. Salt—100 sacks coarse $9.50. from that post state that in the receip guns.

The London News (aboltion in asutioners). The London News (abolition in sentiment,

The aggregate receips by railroad and steam-refuse—their loads are engaged before they arbut had not force enough to land and drive off boat yesterday were: 1274 sacks bran. 4 bbls boat yesterday were: 1274 sacks bran. 4 bbls rive, often to a greater amount of tomage than By the couriesy of a gentleman of this city.

By the couriesy of a gentleman of this city.

1 P. 31. At 10 o'clock on the morning of November 22, a shell from Fort Melias bounced through our bulwarks and took his head square off. His brains and blood were scattered all over my face, choice white charmed. There was a heavy stock rible imaginable. law prime, and the firing continued all day, and was resumed ling reported

THE YARREES AT THEE—We paid a brief is to see our way through two or is the standard of the first officer or some other sminule command of the first officer or some other sminule partition generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are posted to have been a man of comparison generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are posted to have been a man of comparison generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are posted to have been a man of comparison generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are posted to have been a man of comparison generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are posted to have been a man of comparison generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are posted to have been a man of comparison generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are posted to have been a man of comparison generally well and in good spirits.

The Yarrees are for Pulsski. We found the can use the follows:

The Yarrees are found and which it is to see our way through two or it is to see our way through two or it is an an employ in a private and the vessel be placed under the command of the first officer or some other sminute. The white we can use the below the water line, capsing her to leak freely, but by the State. In the personant do now carpors; that dollars' worth.—Kwernelle Register, icih.

The Yarrees are first and combiners are grown and the vessel be placed under the command of the first officer or some other sminutes, but by the state. In the personant was the command of the site of the worth and command of the state in the command of the site of the worth and command of the site of the worth and command of the state. In the personant was the command of the site of the worth and command of the site of the worth and command of the state in the command of the site of the worth and command of the site o terminated, and sent home, as the readiest way of restoring to loyal American citizens their kee craft, that has for several weeks been in for the rifled cannon of the enemy, and the for the rifled cannon of the enemy, and the are already making a good thing of it, thanks to until it is all disposed of. durance viie at our wharf, was yesterday permitted to discharge her cargo and to return to Old Abe's bosom. The two-barred Confederate distance outside the bar, and cannot be much This vigorous and determined policy checked Old Abe's bosom. The two-barred Confederate distance outside the bar, and cannot be much The New Orleans Crescent's money article of

A firm in Montevalle, Shelby county, Ast, at a salary of machine to large advertise to give away thirty sacks of sait to independent and manufactured and manufactured as at 21 cents. It only requires pinck to carry this speculation, both of the raw and manufactured article, to a very high figure.

The Secretary of War has been authorized by Freestone Point the other day belonging to Mr. Pairfax. They were fishing houses and not of much value.—Richmond Examiner.

Shelby county, Ast, and in the other day belonging to Mr. Pairfax. They were fishing houses and not of much value.—Richmond Examiner.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 21 We are again under obligations to the Southern Express company for late dates fro Texas and New Orleans.

FAST DRIVING .- For putting his animal int a gait ahead of the sober pace permitted by the law, Marsh Taylor had yesterday to pay a fine at eleven dellars.

VICTUALS FOR MEMPRIS,-During the las two weeks the Mound City ferry has brought into Memphis 591 cattle, 456 hogs, and 296 No Licese.-For running a public wagon without being duly licensed to do so by the public authorities, Mr. Garrity was yesterday fined by the Recorder six dollars. We regret to learn that our friend, Col D. C. Cross, is confined to his room at t Gayeso House by severe indisposition.

LAWYERS BREAKING LAW .- A couple of lawyers at the Recorder's court yesterday morning exerted their eloquence to the pitch of exciting the fire of their own souls, when they "pitched into each other on a fight." One of them was fined six dollars for faking away with his mawleys, the other ten dollars for contemp

NEW MEITARY WORK.-Lieut-Col. M. A. Haynes has now in press a work entitled, "In- ament of which the following is a copy: structions in Field Artillery, Horse and Foot, which will, without doubt, supply a deficiency that has heretofore been felt. The work has received the indersement of Gens. Johnston, Polk, Pillow, McCown, and Col. J. P. McCown, commanding artillery, and is undoubtedly meritor of the speaker's chair. The coremonies of the ions. The first edition will be issued in a few days, at Nashville.

PROCEEDS OF THE CONCERT.-We have before us a copy of the correspondence on the subject of the proceeds of the concert or heads bowed down. The galleries and floor on behalf of the managers, thanks Mr. Wicker sham for the free use of the theater, McClure & the lid of the coffin was lifted up for a few min. Co., for the loan of pianes, the ladies and gentleutes, to give the friends of Col. Terry an oppor- men performers, and Professor Katzenbach who made great exertions to secure the success of the concert. Miss Mollie Bang acknowledges the receipt of $50 from a liberal gentleman of his city to be appropriated as she desires; she gives it to the sick and wounded soldiers. This sum, with $737 received for tickets, make the total receipts $787. Of this $25 was paid to Mr. Thompson, $34 for printing, $20 for the $122.50. Of the remainder, $664.60 there was attibuted to the General Hospital $250, Over-DRAYING PRICES .- Before the morning train the Charleston tailroad leaves, as much the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers of comes first served is the motto, every effort is As we reached the street, we found a large load the draymen is smart enough to deliver, hundred and seven dollars and wenty-five crowd surrounding Paulding Anderson, Jr. (a To accomplish their object and get as near as cents, part of the net proceeds of the amateur H.J. Helland J C. Herks J N. Hiller Edwin; Herne Rev Geo. plated fransfer of a portion of their present number to North Carolina, it will be necessary to provide new quarters for them in some of the now few) unoccupied tobacco warehouses. There are now upwards of 1500 prisoners of war in this city, whose aggregate weekly cost to the Confoderacy cannot be far short of $3000.

From the Examiner, Developer 16.]

Chorthina for the clothing contributed by the State of Massachusetts to her solders, (prisoner are here) has, we learn, arrived, and part of it has already been distributed by Adjutant Pierland and the sale of the s to hand they belabor the hind quarters of the ville, who, a stranger in our midst, so kindly poor animals. The mules occasionally get as wild as their drivers and "cut up shines," that increases the general confusion and adds to the very respectfully,

| Marking E. A. P. Manging H. V. Marking E. R. 25 May S. C. Manggar H. V. Marking E. A. Mays William E. A. Mays William Juka Dr. Mulling Juka Dr. Mulling Juka Dr. Mulling Juka Dr. Mulling B. P. Moore William; Mulling W. Mulling Juka Dr. Mulling B. Moore William; Mulling W. Mulling Juka Dr. Mulling B. Moore William; Mulling Mulling Juka Dr. Mulling B. Moore William; Mulling Mulling Juka Dr. Mulling B. Moore William; Mulling Mullin patch regarding the news from England, in ref- amount of human volubility and profamityrence to the seizure of our commissioners on And one desirous of studying human nature and board the Trent, I have obtained much fuller mule temper, and of watching the gyrations of dray-wheels under difficulties, will find a visit to the depot of the Charleston railroad about gate opening time, worth the trouble.

On Change-Basiness News. There was a good attendance on 'Change yesific. He is required to demand the uncondi-torday and more activity than might be expected lonal restoration of the prisoners on beard an in view of the depressing nature of some of the regiment Sickles brigade.

A very large number of persons visited the Queenle wharf yestarday, but no one was almost of a letter from Warsaw to the London the bridge; they, however, satisfied their curiosity by inspecting the guns, which are similar to those in the Queenle wharf yestarday, but no one was almost of a letter from Warsaw to the London with bridge; they, however, satisfied their curiosity by inspecting the guns, which are similar to those in the Queenle Fark.

Gen Williams and said, with the exception of Col. Napier, paid a visit to Collingwood on Saturday, for the purpose of examining its capabilities as a navel depot for Lake Horon. The party left on the morning train on the Northern railway. On their arrival at Collingwood as all the warround the hardon was pointed on the morning train on the government at Washington to Canada, for the purpose of presents the gloomy and the general and staff cruitsed around the hardon, and the general and staff crusted around the hardon, and the general and staff crusted around the hardon, and the general was produced to silence.

Areas are made without distinction of ago, sex or quality. The most revend prelates and revised a large of the default and unchanged. Make the demand and firm regiment the demand and imm. Sugar quiet and unchanged. Molasses was in good demand for wheat, so that the demand of the demand of the capital of the demand of the demand of the capital of the demand of the capital of the demand of the purpose of examining its capabilities as a navel depot for Lake Horon. The sales were for local wants are reported to silence of the capital of the demand of the capital of the capital of the capital of the ca

The sales on 'Change were as follows: Flour- this evening. Corkery prides himself on keep-50 bbls, and 107 sacks superfine $9, 199 sacks ing an unsurpassable table; to travel on bls boat low extra $10. Wheat—4:0 hushels prime $1.65, Victoria is the Vicksburg boat this evening; the first January next; that for the completion and delivery of the lists to first February, and that for the return of the lists to first March. It also aground. A detachment was sent to their aid and the United.

The London News (another in the lists damaged $1.25. Corn—to onsist the supposed to have got safely ashors at her while party) says the reckless policy of Lincoln may cause war between England and the United. A detachment was sent to their aid.

The London News (another in the completion and his party) says the reckless policy of Lincoln may cause war between England and the United. A detachment was sent to their aid. 140 bushels damaged $1.25. Corn-450 bushs traveling public will find her a splendid boat to els white soc. Outs-370 hushols $1. Rye- travel on; she has good, elever officers.... The for the raturn of the lists to first March. It also aground. A detachment was sent to their aid proposes to tax securities for money belonging from this place. Have not heard whether the States, but it cannot think him erany coungle to of high water in the channel of the Arkansas, we have been permitted to read a private letter from his son, on board the United States steamer Richmond, recently stationed at Pass a Pourte, but which subsequently took part in the fight at Fort Pickens. The letter is dated November 33. 200 sacks oats, 206 sacks and 17 bbls potatoes, to carry. The Grand Duke came to the landing and commenced to receive. She leaves this 15 hhds tobacco, 979 sacks wheat.

At 10 o'clock on the morning of Nevember 22, the Richmond opened a bombardment of Fort McRae and the neighboring sand batteries. For a while everything went on swimmingly; but the enemy opened a powerful battery on the ship; the conflict grew serious. The writer (a heuten and on board the Richmond) says:

I had been complimenting the captain of one of the gruns on the accuracy of his aim, when a shell from Fort McRae beauted through our factors. Sains at 2x221c. for common to good a conflict grow being the captain of one of the gruns on the accuracy of his aim, when a shell from Fort McRae beauted through our of molesses, with a fair demand at ruling rates.

Of molesses, with a fair demand at ruling rates.

Sales at 15 20 181c. for fermenting, and 19c. for Taylor a McEwen offer for sale a large stock of the blinding my eyes and making my brain reel.

We had thirteen men serving that gun. Of Sales at 10 at 18 jc., for fermenting, and 19c, for these, six were wounded, and one killed outright. The spectacle was one of the most horizontal than the prime, 22 at 23c, for prime to choice. Nothing imaginable.

White corp. add at 90c.

White corp. add at 90c.

Dissorved .- We observe by an advertisement n another column that the firm of W. R. Smith & Kibee is dissolved. Mr. Smith pays claims, receives payments, and carries on the business.

RECORDER'S COURT .- At this court yesterday here were twenty-four cases : ten persons paid seventy dollars fines, four went to the chaingang, six were discharged, two were whipped and one case was continued.

The Rev. Mr. Pickett will preach a Grace Church, Hernando street, to-morrow DVER Will E. Douavan Agnes 2, Dinkins Maris. norming at 11 o'clock.

To Mossrs. Cayce & Son invite everybody to their sale this morning. If we are to judge by he crawds we see at the Arcade daily, they nust be doing a heavy business.

THE STEAMBOAT B. P. CHEENEY .- Our read ers will remember that efforts were made sometime ago to take out of the hands of Mr. P. F. KELER Adv. Remas Mary; Realing Josephino Schlieker, the southern proprietor of the boat, the steamboat B. P. Chcency, formerly running son, Esq., Receiver for the Confederate States. who was proceeding to sell her, when the sale was stopped by a mandate from the Confederate ()LIVER Marsha, O'Salt, an Bridget. nvestigation has been made of the standing of Mr. Schlieker, and of his claims on the boat MEMPHIS, December 13, 1861. Mr. Schlieker is authorized to take charge the steamer B. P. Cheeney under an order from the Confederate Judge for the district of Tennessee, and I hereby turn said boat over t Mr. Schlieker, who will procure the cylinde belonging to said beat now in the office of th ommandant of the post at Memphis. All articles belonging to the said bo t in the hands of Messrs. J. D. Morton & Co., or others, Mr. Schlieker is authorized to take with said boat. HOWELL E. JACKSON,

C. S. Receiver for West Tennesser

Since the bant came into the hands of Mr chlicker he has changed her name to that o 'Milton Brown," and tendered her as a transport heat to the Confederacy. Gen. Pollt accepted the tender in the following terms: COLUMBUS, December 14, 1861.

P. F. SCHLIERER-SIR: I accept the tender f the service of the steamer " Milton Brown," as government transport-also with the unde standing that you are to be in command Maj. Gen. Commanding

Correspondence. RESPECTED MADAM: Permit me to inc your address a check to the amount of two andred and seven dollars and twenty-five cents, as part of the net proceeds of the LYTCHERAN J: Evans D L.G. Elder J. Edgerley J. W. Ellis S H; Echole D H; Eddins Dr W; Eason J. Edmandson A C. amateur concert, given at the New Memphis Theater on the 18th inst , to be appropriated for

Respectfully. F. KATZENBACIL MEMPHIS, December 20; 1861.

SIR: The Southern Mothe

MARY E. POPE, Sec'y. S. M. MEMPRIS, December 20, 1861.

M. CATEN T. W. McAninch Count H: McCoin Jurges
M. McNeur, A. S. McBeide Michael: a cEncont B
K. Melson, Whi. B. T. McCoiniera Joines, McNeur, A. S.
McMalson, P. McCarder, Cacagham; McGless J.G. 2, No. The river was falling yesterday, but less raplly than before. Business was not very brisk on the landing. The weather was time with some NATER Mr. Nelson Wm B 2, Neal June than for the last few days... Louis D'Orr from Columbus had a quantity of cotton seed and corn; she left for New Orleans... The Yazoo from Columbus, had 509 sacks wheat, 354 hogs, 548 sacks corn, and potatoes, eggs, cotton seed. douds, a north wind made the weather cooler tional restoration of the prisoners on beard an English steamer.

The English press is universally warfile.

The Warror, the celebrated steelected steelec

Arrests are mode without distinction of ago, sex graining of quality. The most reversed prelates and its militia, and organize a volunteer army, in ecclesiastics, selected to make a report on the view of an impending collision with the United tenth of the control of the contr of the Sam Hale, that the order of Col. Borland, The Yazzo left for Columbus....The splendid Viveny W.L. Vanhare & Brooks, Vancelin Lohn, of the Sam Hale, that the order of Col. Borland, which has been published in the Appeal by restricting exportations of all kinds of breadstuffs, meals, and produce, will be vigorously carried out and generally observed by the people. It is expected that but small arrivals from pains to accommodate their passengers and produce and produce and produce and generally observed by the people. It is expected that but small arrivals from pains to accommodate their passengers and produce.

The Yazzo left for Columbus... The splendid and popular Ferd. Kennett arrived to-day and viscously and visc Keene, Capt. Corkery, is the New Orleans boat | FileNois LETTERS.—Chanagas Vistor; Rojons John law superfine $8, 50 bbls. superfine $9.50, 25 is to be continually feasted.... The handsome Zanone John, Botte A. Cregnett in Jos. Bruser Ashron M. C. GALLAWAY Postmoste MEMPRIS December 25, 1861.

TOBACCO-7 hhas changed hands on private torms productions remain an franced as rollings ;

. CORN-in active demand and firm, with mice of 400 bushels white at course, and 150 at rise.

and 25 harrels at $1.75.

RAMBAUT & COX. Taylor & McEwen offer for sale one thousaget pairs superior black army since made in Ter pearse of the best materials. Also a large lat of black

LETTER LIST. naining in the Postoff - at Memphis, Torm, on the TWENTETH DAY OF DECEMBER 1801. Persons calling for them should say that they are LADIES' LIST.

 $\mathbf{A}^{\mathrm{LEXANDER}}$ Mary; Arledge L.C; Americ Lettlin A 2, Andrews W H. BARINDS Charlott; Benum F W. Braciley F J. Bell toy Elenor, Brown Mary Ann. Boon Fannie T. Blot allie; Brown Bedlord; Booth Elizabeth. Collier Saller, Carter Virginia; Cale Isabeller, Collier Saller, Carter Wing Crembre Mee, Callion Sarah A; Gracher J W; Carettiers Sailer, Clark Mrs. Cultury Mary A; Colle Eliza.

EASTER Los H. Erle George,

FALWELL Zarsko Zeliq Poerest Bella De, Pedy A. gusta Ford C.F. GARRETT Mrs. Gunden N.E. Grimes Elizabeto; Gib-son Ann. Griffey Elizabeth; Garrison, F.F. AMILTON Anna T: Horten Journey Button (bes JEY Elizabeth; Joho Fannie; Jones S L.

LANE W H: Laird Emilion, Lane Mary E. Lynch A LOCK Lemmons Evolvin Love BA; Lemmons Jonesia; Linkey Mrs. Lucas T A. between Columbus and Cairo, which effort he successfully resisted, receiving Gen. Polk's order Murin A V; Mallady Maggie, Monford Alice: May Trees E; Markhum Saill; Malone R C, Modey Aum E. was afterward placed in the hands of H. E. Jack- Medical Model of Manager Medical Manager Mana NORTHAM Slitmbeth Pi Neagle M At Newman Mary court at Nashville: Since that time a full legal DARTEN Mary: Power Mary A. Payuter Sallie Puckets Sarah; Phillips J A. Power) Martha B. Research Mary. The result of the examination is seen in the doca fee; Sni ps Ann; Solars Mary, Softie Nancy; So

> TWSON Caroline C. Thereann Mary, To're Sallie. VERNER Rose: Vincent Madam, Violot Fannie. Williams A; Wright M E, Williama E; Wren Safa G; West Namey: Williams Safat W; Williams L; What d Sas; Whilett Math

YOUNG Maine. GENTLEMEN'S LIST. A LLEN J R. Apdison G W. Armstrong J W. Armstrong J. Andrews J H. Asison Dr. S H. Astronomy J. Anderson W. Anderson W. Anderson W. Anderson W.

G: Adams W P.

D Barris W S. Black, Bennett R E. M. Bakmor, R M. Blackbern C B: Barbour Lieut W. Brand A: Bossett G R. Brathour Lieut W. Brand A: Bossett G R. Bratha J D: Beard C: Batha! Capt W D: Been A, Berry H B. Bill Capt J R. Billiags A D: Brochus J B; Boko S S; Butler J J; Burk P; Benne A B D: Bassell A; Baine A; Roud 2; Browneys J D; Berry J S; Bay and a; Co; Brean Isr W A 2; Bryann H; Berry J; Bayer J; Britler T; Burten Capt; Remaind J M; Barreit J; Bowman Capt; Bowen S H; Remaind J M; Barreit J; Bowman Capt; Bowen S H; Remaind J M; Brown P J; Brooks W P L.

CASTREL M.C. Cauley L. P. Cox J. Coopey T. Cook
S. Colins W. S. Cachan J. P. S. Co-firms J. W.
Chook E. Carling J.S. Calshan J. Cumins W. Chours L.
Cooper J. J. Comon J. Colomin T. Convoy J.M. Colins
G. Caell C. D. Carre D. W. Girck J. M. Cho S. C. Chridge
Bi Charles J.S. Carlinek J. M. Cambon J. B. Campson S.
C. Cary S. P. Cary S. Camboll E. Blackmor Charles J. B.
Chandley

DUNSTONEL D.S. Dorth J. Douly F. Dillon J. Duk-borbetty M.L. Dryen J.S. Dicken A.J. Byor S. M. Don in T.H. Davis J. Davis A.B or W. Duti J. Degear H. H. Davis W.E. Post CC; Faster Barber Shap; Foller A: Fourl J F. Pirzgerald W; Flood T; Fisher & Ca; Fallin C W; Fisher T A Partis N L. GUERENT G B: Glisson Lark, Gleus J M; Green Wall, & Co. 2; Gassett S; Guerett J B; Garrell Ju; Graham Dr S; Goryvech U L; Goas A L; Green Pour li Graham Dr S; Gatti G B; Garrett Jo; Gray Llent M V; Chick Person

HENRY CAPT, Henry W A, Harndon P, Harr C II V: Hansed Capt: Hannah B, Hams Paulier Caro-line, Haley Isaac; Hudson C C, Hughas Wm. Hanst F.

Persons calling for letters will please any they are not rectised; and give the date of such adversament. Sometry office hours from half past two to half past three changed. Sales 400 burdels prime at $1.55; 149 decaged at $1.55, and 160 fair at $1.50. BRAN-160 and St hage sold in two lots at 802 P ann. OATS - Spice of 300 buchels, is several land at $1.00

DAILY REPORT OF THE MARKET.

MEMPHIS TOBACCO QUOTATIONS.

SUGAR-Subs (2) bhds at 34,87e, and or do at MOLASSES-The sales were confined to small here at St 425c, for burrels, and 25 c. 16 for half brin. POTATOES-Sales 150 Lushe's at $1.40; 40 at $1.55.

STEAMBOAT COLUMN.

Memphis and Vicksburg C. S. Mari Line. THE fice packet VICTORIA, Rewland, URDAY, 21st Instant, at 5 r. N.
For treight or passage apply to J. C. McMANUS, or desired.

JERRY H. BANKS, Assets. C. S. Mail Line For Des Ard, Augusta and Jacksonport. THE presenger packet SAM HALE, W. F. Briccop, master, will learn as above on SATURDAY, 21st instant, at 5 v. M.

For New Orleans. FITHE steamer MARY E. KRENE, Cark-SATURDAY, ils invint at 5 7 M.

For freight or passage apply on board as to deluce to the board as to deluce the board as the For New Otleans-Thresigh in 52 Hours

For freight or possage apply on beard, or to de Wift LARRY HARMSTAD, Agent, bor last. The but greating the seven bank-organized nodes the general banking law enlarged privileges has making application to use at this office, tweeve immediate passed the upper house. The financial and commercial communities are much releved, and an improved for hig was observed to day in all circles, excepting, of course, among the skinffints.

The but greating the seven bank-organized making application to use at this office, tweeve immediate the upper house. The financial seven commercial communities are much releved, and an improved flate transportation to this city. Apply to Capt. E. M. KEENE, Richardson, moster, heave of REENE, Richardson, moster, heave on SATURDAY, flat instant, at 5 p. M. Reading, box 125, postoffice, or at the recruiting office, JAS. T. BOURN & U.O., Agamis, No. 6 Adams street, near Front Row.